

Theatre Arts - Acting Emphasis, B.F.A.

The BFA Acting Emphasis provides conservatory-style training that allows greater depth of focus in acting performance. It requires application and audition prior to admission. The degree includes hands-on, intensive work in acting techniques for stage and screen, movement, voice, and improvisation. The degree also provides performance opportunities that prepare students for professional careers in acting.

Matriculation Requirements

Admission is competitive and based on successful evaluation of student's performance audition or production portfolio.
