

Anthropology, B.S.

The BA/BS/Minor will give students the opportunity to earn a full major/minor in the field of anthropology. Students who obtain this degree will a) develop anthropological knowledge, enabling them to analyze trends in culture and society, b) methodological competence, learning to apply anthropological methods for learning about cultural/ideological differences and navigating them in daily life, and c) essential skills, written and spoken communication, analytic reading and writing, building rapport with people from different backgrounds. The Minor in Anthropology will allow students pursuing other majors to earn a credential that suggests critical thinking skills, writing ability, and cultural sensitivity.

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Students will master anthropological theory and gain the capacity to use these theories to analyze empirical findings of the field.
2. Students learn to apply methods for learning about social processes and cultural/ideological differences
3. Students will learn to produce and effectively communicate their own arguments and studies on society, culture, and history. These arguments will draw on professional literature and data, both gathered by others and by themselves.
