

English - Writing Studies Emphasis, B.A.

UVU's English program is designed to give students skill, confidence, and versatility in writing, speaking, and interpreting texts. The program provides opportunities for students to consider and practice the applications of effective language use in diverse situations: professional, pragmatic, social, political, and aesthetic. The English program emphasizes knowledge and use of standard English in all written work, yet incorporates an understanding that English is a desirably diverse and variable phenomenon. The courses of study in English are designed to familiarize students with much of the traditional canon of literature. They are also designed to provide students with the critical and ethical skills necessary to interrogate this canon, to incorporate and legitimize their own and others' "different" voices, not just in the academy, but in any of the many situations in which language influences human activity.

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Apply a range of rhetorical theory (from classical to contemporary) to the analysis of both academic and public/popular texts' construction and effectiveness.
2. Compose multimodal documents that successfully synthesize text and other design elements (graphical, aural, interactivity, etc.) with rhetorical purpose.
3. Integrate rhetorical knowledge into the successful completion of a Writing Studies related capstone course.
